Dear Donna and family, I am so very sorry for loss of your father. Just from knowing what a talented, loving, and intelligent daughter Donna is, I know he was a very special father and mentor to his family. I am thankful that you all could be together to support one another and your mom at this difficult time. May your memories become the treasure that your father and husband has left with you. In peace, Nancy Stout

Mr. Maumus I never got the chance to meet you in person, but your daughter Rhonda is my best friend, I love her so much and she is so sweet, pretty, honesty, and faithful to all, I know now where she got it from, I know God now has a wonderful angel with wings flying high with the grace you passed on to your daughter, she loves you so much and I feel even though I didn't get to meet you in person I feel that I have known you a long time by all your daughter has told me. May you rest in peace and fly high with the charm and glory you have provided your family with. you will be greatly missed and loved for now on. Lots of love Ann Scott

Mr. Maumus was a rare person that always seemed to see the glass half full. No matter the circumstance his demeanor was always positive and uplifting. He instilled this trait in his children and his legacy will live on through them. No words can capture the depth of his family's loss, but some solace can be had in knowing the fullness of his life and the great joy he experienced from the many days spent with his family.
