We attended the Assembly of God in Waterloo with Liz and became friends. My oldest daughter has a painting of horses on her wall and my second daughter one of little baby pigs in a yard that Liz painted especially for them. Our son has a cross stitch that Liz made for him announcing his birth. Liz was such a beautiful person inside and out and has always remained in our hearts. My husband and I and our children send our sympathies. We look forward to our meeting in heaven someday. God Bless Charlotte, Charlie, Julie, Cissy and AJ Carroll

Liz Mayer. There will never be anyone else with her love of life, her zest for living, her passions in everything she did, and the caring love she shared with everyone she touched. She lived her life with pure joy, learning, experiencing, and running at hurdles most of us would have walked around. Thank you Liz for taking us along on the ride of your life. We love you. I worked with Liz for 10 year selling homes in West St. Tammany Parish until I left and jointed Re/Max in 1995. She always stayed in touch and was a gem of a person and a very fine lady. When ever I would see her she would make me laugh. She had her own personality. I always remember her tell me often how much she liked my name Wayne, since it was the same name as her brother. She was just a wonderful lady and will be missed by many. May god give her son and his family the faith they need to get threw this very difficult time in their lives. Please know all of you are in my prayers, and May God bless all of you at this needy time. Warmest Regards, Wayne Mayberry.
