Kathy was a great person. She was always upbeat and humorous. She always talked about her daughters and grandson. She will be greatly missed. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.

My husband and I were so sorry to hear about Kathy, even though we have not seen Kathy in a very long time. We were friends back in the mid 70's. We feel a great loss and sorrow. We wish to send our sympathy to her daughters (we knew them when they were just babies.)and her husband. We did not make the wake or funeral due to not knowing about it. Just heard Tues. night. The world has truly lost a beautiful person, but God has gained a mighty wonderful one. Sincerely, Mike and Glenda Keller
