Patrick T. McWilliams

DEC 2, 1953 - DEC 30, 2010

Patrick T. McWilliams, 57, of Metairie and Covington, LA, died December 30, 2010.

He was born December 2, 1953, in New Orleans, the twin son of the late Elleonora Perrilliat McWilliams and William Kennon McWilliams, Jr., of Covington, LA. Mr. McWilliams was a graduate of St. Paul's School and The University of Louisiana at Lafayette, earning a degree in geology. His love for geology was evident to all who knew him, and he was a successful entrepreneur and independent oil and gas producer with his twin brother, Paul C. McWilliams, also of Metairie.

He is survived by two brothers, D. K. McWilliams of Madisonville, Paul C. McWilliams of Metairie, and three sisters, Penny M. Doster and Jennifer M. Cantrelle of Covington and Mandeville, respectively, and one younger sister, Rebecca M. Giveans of Houston, as well as eleven nieces and nephews, all residing on the Northshore.

A private family service was held Monday, January 3rd, at E. J. Fielding Funeral Home in Covington.

The family requests memorial tributes be sent to St. Paul's School, Covington, as Mr. McWilliams was an avid St. Paul's alumnus.

My deepest sympathies to the entire McWilliams family but especially to Paul. To lose a brother way too early in life is a terrible hurt that never goes away. But try and remember all the good times-it will help you to make it. Pat was a good friend and one of the nicest, most genuine men I have known.

To all of Pat's siblings: I remember, with a smile, the times at Madisonville Jr. High as one of the Carter kids (10 kids) and playing on the playground with the twins who were trying to fool us as to which one was on the monkey bars and which one we were talking to. Our thoughts and prayers go out to each of you for your loss of your loved one.
