To Penny et. al. Charles and I wish to send you our condolences on the death of your mother. We remember her fondly and know that you will miss her. We wanted to come for the festivities at Tchefuncta but we can't make the long trip. Age has slowed us down greatly and we can't do what we want to do. Beth Crow sent us the notice of her death. Please accept our deepest sympathy. When I accepted the job as Golf Professional at Tchefuncta in 1972, two of the first people that Jane and I met were Kent and Nonie. Later I called on Kent many times for advice. The advice that he gave was always good. Nonie always had a sweet way about her and was always extremely nice to Jane and I and we will miss her dearly. It must have been great to have them as a Mother and Father. Billy and Jane Walker
