Larry, I am saddened to hear about the loss of your mother and want you to know my prayers are with you and your family during this most difficult time. She is truly in a better place and I feel fortunate to personally know you as you are one of the best people I have ever met. I know your mother must be proud to have such a sincere son who gives of himself to others. My the good Lord look over you all while time heals the wounds of broken hearts. Sincerely, Greg Stutes
