"The Bend In The Road" When we feel we have nothing left to give And we are sure that the "song has ended"- When our day seems over and the shadows fall Where can we go to find the strength To valiantly keep on trying. Where can we find the hand that will dry The tears that the heart is crying- There's but one place to go and that is to GOD And together we stand at life's crossroads And view what we think is the end. But God has a much bigger vision And he tells us it's only a bend- For the road goes on and is smoother, And the "pause in the song" is a "rest", Let go and let God share your load, Your work is not finished or ended, You've just come to "a bend in the road." God Bless You Mom!

"God needed one more to fill the empty space, he looked around the hospital and saw your sweet face, when you stopped breathing, we knew you were gone, you went so peacefully, so we knew you chose the right home, we knew your skies weren't so blue, and the roads were getting too tough for you, but you fought that fight, and you did the best you could do, the best part was you didn't die alone, the day God sent you home."
