From a Father to a Son; with all of my love. Brian you are my angel. When I used to ask you every morning, "What are you doing today?" and your answer would always be "everything and it's going to be alright", and I would smile. I look back at all the good times we had together; they were very special. I know I did not give you as much credit as you deserved but in my heart and soul I was very proud of you and the things that you have accomplished. Now all I have left are memories, very special memories. I love your smile and your laugh, the way you played with your nieces and nephews. Brian all I can say is that I love you, and that you will be missed but never forgotten. I know that you are in a much better place with God and the angels and I know you are finally at peace. P.S. I'll see you in the future son. Dad

Though you aren't here physically, you are with us in spirit. I will try to find comfort in that. I hope you are happy & at peace with the angels. You're now our angel watching over us from heaven & will greet us with open arms & that gorgeous smile when we get there. My heart and deepest sympathies go out to the Montreuil family. It was an honor and privilege to know Brian. I have never met anyone with as much heart as him; he was a genuinely good person who would give you his last anything if you needed it. I know he is resting peacefully now and watching over all of us. His time was too soon but he still lives on in the hearts of everyone who loved him. He will never be forgotten and I know in the end, we will see him again smiling and laughing the way he always has. Miss you, B!
