Amy, We were so very, very sorry to hear of C.J.'s passing. Far too soon. Please know that you, your children, and entire family are in our daily prayers. Even though it's been years, I can honestly say I recently had been thinking of you both. Fond memories, of course. I will continue to offer you all up in my petitions at Perpetual Adoration before the Holy Eucharist for strength and peace until you are able to see him again, for eternity. God Bless you and grant you His peace, June Montgomery Miller
