To John's family: On Saturday when I arrived at The Windsor, I was saddened to hear of John's passing away. May your faith in God bring you peace. John was a dear friend to my mother, Dot Reed, resident at The Windsor. She is missing him, too. They sat and ate lunch together every day. When I visit my mother, I also ate lunch with John and enjoyed his company. He was always so friendly, cheerful, and talkative. He always mentioned his wonderful family and always how much he misses his wife. Now they are together. May the two of them have everlasting life with The Lord. Sincerely, Liz Day

Dear Richard & Silvia: It was strange how our paths came together. It was because of that day we met your dad. He was great to listen to him about his stories. He was an interesting & fun man. He was young at heart. He will always have a place in our hearts. Prayers for your family.

Richard, Your dad was a hell of a man and lived a hell of a life. I'm sure he is dancing in heaven and has livened up the party. They don't make men like your dad any more, he lived life to the fullest. Our condolences to you and your family.

I met John L. while working for the American Heart Association during the 1990's. During my ten years there, John L. was our printer coming in every few weeks to print our CPR information, etc. He was the sweetest, kindest soul and I grew very fond of him. My condolences to his family. He was a lovely person and I'll never forget him!
