Dad, With all my heart, with all that I am, with all that I do, With all I say, with all I feel, with every breath, with every tear, with every memory, with every second, with every emotion, with ever aspersion, with every hope dream and wish, with well, everything your missed deeply in my heart. If ever I needed advise, God and you only knew. Thanks for all the Great advise, jokes, love, and encouragement. Thanks for memories always being great ones, where you brightened up our days. You was that candle in the dark that lit the way. Well, at least you always caught me when I started to stray. Absents makes my heart grow fonder from day to day. I will always remember what I use to pray; I want a normal family that cares about me. Oh how foolish this boy could be. For I couldn't understand why you was never around. Yet still you helped keep me on solid ground. To me there was much I did not see. Your personal struggles and life of unease. Oh do these trials blow in like a breeze. I would have taken your burdens upon myself and not you. But I know my Father, "that would not do". For you were an independent, head strong man. So, that where I get it, from that I ran. I would give up all in this life I had, just to have you back, I Love and MISS YOU DAD.
