Mom. my friend, my mentor, my drinking buddy and my everything. I miss you more than I can express, but I know those feelings are selfish. IEverything I am and have today is because you were my support and the wind beneath my wings. No matter how many times I screwed up, you always picked me up and gave me strength. Thank you for being a wonderful mother, father and grandmother. I hold you close in my heart daily and I miss you tremendously. Thank you for being my rock. Everyday is Mother's day for me and you. You are my life and I love you. Don't forget me and please give me guidance to raise raise my children properly. I will see you soon . Love, Sheila (your favorite child) HA

Sheila and Family - We are so very sorry for your loss. Nan was a wonderful woman who will be greatly, greatly missed by all of us who were fortunate enough to know her. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Hopefully, you will find comfort in knowing that Nan is now with the angels above. I am sure she is enjoying her evening cocktail about now! Love you - Marc and Denise Mancuso

Aunt Joan Rest in Peace. We were blessed to share many loving and interesting experiences with you. As a young tike you were so good and special to me. I will have those memories close to me forever ! I did not get a chance to say good-bye before you left to be with Poppy and Nana but I know you were able to hear the sadness mixed with joy when I saw your face and heard your voice in my memory. Your task on earth is complete. The Noonan's and O'Connor's are better because of you and your memory will guide us forever. Love always : "Little Jimmy"

My Nanny Bananny!! You are so special to me in so many ways. I remember all the way back to the times we shared while mom was finishing up law school. Man those were some good times. You have made me into the incredible woman I have come to be. You will always be my other mother. I love you so much, and miss you terribly. You are in a better place now, and I know you will always be watching over us. Buddy boy misses you too, and says he loves you.

I did not have the advantage of knowing Aunt Joan in my adult life but I am positive she would have been a great person for me to understand and learn what makes a kind person in this complex world. One of my best memories of aunt Joan; I remember sitting in mass and the collection basket was coming towards us and she opened her wallet and all she had was a single $20 bill,she pulled it out and put it in the basket. I knew she couldn't afford to give away the $20 and asked you why did you do that? She responded that God would give you back twice the amount on another day. As we left church and I was running thru the parking lot I found a $20 bill. I wanted to give this to Aunt Joan and she told me to keep it but to remember how quick God can work. God bless Aunt Joan, Mike

Sheila and family - Thank you for sharing Nan with me and Taylor. Through the years Nan has become a member of our family. As you know, I am here for you and will continue to be. Nan was one of the most wonderful people that we have had the pleasure of knowing and loving. We will always remember her little comments, her rolling of the eyes and her love for everyone (well, almost everyone...haha). Nan - I miss you. I have come to think of you as my grandmother and I always will. I know that you are now in peace and for that I am happy. God placed you in my life and Taylor's for many reasons. We know that you are watching over us. We love you Nan. Mindy and Taylor
