Joycelyn we are so sorry about Mike. He was one of the little ones, the kids as I grew up on Constance St. I found out today at Frankie & Johnnies. I know that R Staub is out of the country at this time and I know he will be in shock like I am. I am still in shock because I was looking for him at F&J's. He is and was one of us. Mike has been a good friend always to me. I know I will miss him. Please if we can help you with something please let Katherine and I know. Take care, Love Katherine and Donald G. LeCompte

Jocelyn and family - I am sorry to hear of Mike's sudden passing. I lived across Constance Street from him when we were growing up. He was a real character, as you well know. They broke the mold after they made him. Although I only got to see him at high school reunions, he was one neighborhood friend that I remember well. I often told a story of something that Mike and the rest of our gang got involved in when we were young. I've told this so often that now I can't accurately remember what is entirely true and what is elaboration. I do know people like to hear it. My thoughts and condolences are with all of you at this sad moment.
