I would like to convey my sympathy to you in the loss of your loved one. I didn't know Mrs.Oalman,personally,but I do understand the pain of losing one so dear to you. I lost my dear father a few years ago,and a year later my younger brother. I found much comfort reading the bible,especially in Psalm 34:18,here it reassures us that we are never alone,more so at times like this. Also we can share the joy of Lazarus'family when Jesus uttered the words,"Lazarus, come forth." You can only imagine the tears of joy when they saw Lazarus resurrected before their very eyes,here on earth. We too can share that joy when John 5:25,28 is fulfilled. Remember to keep the experiences you shared close to your hearts and pass them on to those who follow you and her memory will live on in them. Take care of yourselves so you can be there for those who love you. My sincere sympathy to all of you my deepest and heartfelt sympathy at the loss of your wife, sweetheart, lover, mother, grandmother,and friend. I am so very grateful to God that He allowed Dot & Buster Oalman in my life for the last 25+ years. I will pray that God will wrap His arms of Love around you and always let you know that He is ever present. We will certinly miss our friend and grieve for her, not to be here with us, for that would be selfish, but that we too will be be longing for Home!!!
