I remember when my grandmother had Alzheimer's and Doris ran in and grabbed as many possessions as she could. Doris' house ended up looking like my grandmother's Missing property finally being located. Sad, but true.

The truth is offensive?

ZF Zoe Fleming July 17 at 5:06 AM
It's true. You Must be one of the pathetic money grubbers profiting off the I'll got gain from an Alzheimer's victim.

Just read about your mother's passing through a friend on Facebook. So sorry to hear. I purchased your family home off Peg Keller. Your Mom would come by for chestnuts and persimmons. Will miss running into her around town.

Paula and Pam, I know your mom has been sick for a long time, but it doesn't make it any easier losing her. She's now with your dad and they are looking down on you, smiling that they created such wonderful people. I love you two. We have been friends for a very long time. You both are like sisters to me.
