Dear Val, and Family~~~ My love, and prayers go out to you and your family. Your father is at the right of God, resting in peace, he has laid the path for you all to follow. He will look down on you with love and pride in his heart. The loss of his love and presense will be felt forever, but surround yourself in the peace of what he gave to you. His spirit, love and devotion that will live forever in your heart. I love you val, god be with you as you take this journey with your family. My love and prayers will be with you today and always. carolyn
