I'm so sorry...I had no idea Ms. Eleanor had passed. She was truly one of the kindest women on this earth. She once gave me a piece of embroidery and convinced me I could finish it. Without her boost of confidence, and her belief that I could do it...I never would have picked up that hobby that I still do over 25 yrs later. Suzette & Suzanne, I'm truly sorry I'm so late in responding. I would have been there had I known.

To Tana and Eleanor's entire family and friends. I am so sorry for your loss. I met Eleanor many years ago when I played at Tana's house with Michelle. I remember she would bring these really GOOD carmel gooey candies that she made and they were sooo good. I then went on to do Eleanor's hair a few times when I got older and she came here to visit. She was such a special, loving generous woman that will be sadly missed! Christina

We often think of our vacation that we stopped in to see your Mom and sisters. We still recall the squirrel that would take peanuts from her hand. So sorry of your loss, and even though we can't be by your side we are in spirit. Our love and prayers go out to you and your family. With deepest sympathy, Joe, Marsha, Nicholas and A.J.
