You were a treasure to all who knew you, my cousin. As the Lonero numbers move on to bigger & better places, it's a joy to see all you Perniciaro's still carrying on the big family traditions like in the 'olden' days by Grandma Lonero's house on Touro St. Father sure had Nick pegged in his homily at the funeral & I was glad to be a part of the service. Rest in peace Nick, and may each of you find joy in his rebirth to eternal life. Let's all gather in his honor sometime soon. Leila Ann Lonero Haydel, Mandeville, LA.

My deepest sympathy to the Family.Mr Nick was a great guy. My dealings with him were mostly at the Auditorium and He always reminded me of my own Dad.... He had a Gruff personality on the exterior but a true Heart of Gold on the inside. My prayers are with the Perniciaro Family at this difficult time.
