I think back to earlier years when Mitch was running through the yard on the annual Easter egg hunt, and I just cannot believe you are gone. I was shocked that you would play because it seemed like an uncool thing to do at your age, but play you did! And you also helped the little ones too. This weekend was the absolute worst of my life. I have never felt such sorrow and grief not only for myself but for your entire family. Mitch, I will always remember you for the loyal, caring, hardworking and yes the mischievous (but fun) man you were. You will always be in my prayers, please help to look out for your family and friends who are left behind missing a piece of our hearts. No goodbyes for now, only see you one day soon. All my love to you and your entire family. Angela & Joseph Galjour

Mitchell, Terri and family: I was so sorry to hear of Mitch's passing. Charolette and I took great pride in knowing Mitch as a friend, neighbor and we both thought of him as a son...he is the same age as our two youngest and looked forward to meeting them in December. Mitch reminded me of myself at 25, hard working, determined and just trying to be the friend people wanted...we will miss him every day, but he will never be forgotten. You will all be in our prayers, God bless Cecil and Charolette
