I just found late tonight, about our loss of A SAINT whom lived among us that passed away last year ! MY Dear Friend Maureen, Grant your love for one another was as an example to all of us blessed to have known both of you, To know you two was to love both of you. Your lives were perfect examples of what it means to be a Christen, and by living your lives this way you both showed others, and they followed in your footsteps. Maureen taught my 11 yr old Angelle', how to sign when she was eleven, she loved watching Grant play his guitar and sing with Maureen sing and sign, as she signed along with her, Maureen took the time to teach my child at a very hard time in her life. Angelle' loved you both so much, Thank You Both for showing her you returned the love she had for both of you for making her feel safe in the unsafe live we had fled. Pastor Ray and Ann played that important role in her, also. I will make sure her husband is with here when I tell her. Grant, Sean, Joy and other our deepest sympathy to the entire family. Be assured she loved each of you dearly, especially her grandchildren. You all will remain in my prayers, and Angelle' and Wil's
