Although I do not know your family, I do know something about the loss of someone that you love dearly. Oftentimes it was the reaching out of sympathy and concern from strangers that brought some measure of peace at that difficult time. You have my deepest heartfelt condolences on the loss of your precious little boy, your sweet angel. God's blessings to you.

To the Rushing family, I am so sorry for your loss, may it be a blessing to know that your lil angel will be flying carefree with the other angels in Heaven in God's care. There is no pain like that pain of losing a child. May God be there for you and your family during this ordeal. I will continue to pray for your family.

In baby James' short 5 months of life, he touched many hearts. He was a fighter, & we all prayed for a miracle, but God was ready to hold baby James in his arms again, so he called him back home to be with the angels. We are now sad because such a precious angel is not in our presence anymore...but he will always be in our hearts. Love, Stephanie & Andy
