Maybe you shouldn't have a continual sexual relationship with his "best friend". He literally would still be here if it wasn't for that.

A prayer for my friend... Lord, you've been with me all day And now unto the night May your presence still surround me As I begin to write I, too have walked this road, Lord And was quick to ask you why? Troubles were all around me So you gave me your reply You opened up my eyes to see The good you put in others Especially those that call themselves Our sisters and our brothers Yes, all have made mistakes, Lord And we wrestle with the pain Of deciding who's at fault, Lord When there's nothing there to gain. We say we want your will, Lord Yet you made it plain to see If we choose to walk in love, Lord.. Our spirits are set free So, help us truly recognize Your Spirit from within As you seek to daily show us Our thoughts you label sin My friend,he wants to serve you He loves you, Lord, I know Listen to his cries, Lord Let your mercies flow Show him that you care, Lord As he seeks your face To guide him and direct him Help him understand your grace My friend, he needs your help, Lord He's a broken man it's true Come heal your humble servant Touch his heart anew I pray that all his cares, Lord He'll lay them in your hands And you'll lift his heavy burden And show him of your plans. Plans not to hurt him...but give him hope And a good future, too For his search's been with his whole heart And, your faithfulness is true. (Jeremiah 29: 11-14)
