Joy Lanning Sarran

FEB 17, 1941 - MAR 12, 2011

Joy Marks Lanning Sarran passed away from Alzheimer's disease Saturday, March 12, 2011. Joy was born February 17, 1941 in New Orleans, LA to John M. and Florence Boesch Lanning and has been a resident of Slidell for the past 34 years. The beloved wife of 43 years to Alfred C. Sarran, Jr., she is survived by two children, Adam C. Sarran and Angela Cara Avila (Mark); her sister, Jo-Ann Thomas (Bill) and one brother, Dr. John M. Lanning, Jr. She was a loving grandmother of Monica, Marcos and Michael Avila and the aunt of Clay Le Brun (Deanna) and Cindy Aguilar (Ronald).

A private Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated from the church at St. Joseph Abbey with interment at the Abbey Cemetery, St. Benedict, LA.

We were honored to have my cousin the Rev. Otis Young, Jr., pastor of St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church celebrate the liturgy.

The family wishes to thank and extend their sincere appreciation to the staff of Slidell Adult Day Care for all the years of kind and loving care they gave to Joy, to the staff of St. Joseph Hospice for their care in Joy's final days, and to the monks of St. Joseph Abbey, especially Bro. Brian.

To remember Joy, donations to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, a charity of your choice or Masses are preferred.

Dear Al, I was saddened to learn of Joy's passing. Your devotion to her was beautiful. Joy now knows "the peace that passes all understanding". May you and your family experience that peace also, knowing Joy is home with her Heavenly Father. May all the good and beautiful things Joy was to you be a comfort to you now. May God bless you and your family. With love from Sue Schellhaas Meyer and your classmates from Holy Rosary, class of '57.
