Hi Terri. You don't know me but I'm a piece of Earl's past. In the late 50's we were the three musketeers, Earl, George and myself. For a few years if you saw one of us, you saw us all. Our friendship lasted even though our paths seperated. The bonds you make early in life last forever. Earl was my Best Man when I got married in 1962. The last time I saw Earl was at a fair in Covington, probably over 30 years ago. I can't tell you how many times over the years I've thought of Earl and wanted to contact him but just didn't act on it. I still feel close to him. I will always consider Earl to have been my best friend. I am truly so sorry for your loss.

Memories are wonderful, think of those times that he made you laugh, cry and reading the gambit. I will always remember him sitting back listening and ready for a one liner. His was a man of few words and to the point! :) He is at peace, you will find it also. I have never seen two people so much in love with each other, time was short but so full of life.
