Jacqueline Ann Lane Smith on Saturday, March 17, 2007, Today She's singing with the angels. Jackie went peacefully with the angles to be with her Lord and Savior at her parents home in Folsom, LA. She was a faithful child of God, loving mother, precious daughter, dear sister, and caring person to a multitude of friends and relatives. A 1978 graduate of Covington High School, she continued her education at Southeastern Louisiana University where as a music major she performed in the orchestra. She then enlisted in the United States Air Force serving in the accounting department at Kessler Air Force Base in Biloxi, MS. Her love of music followed her throughout her life as she served as pianist, soloist and choir director for several churches. The love and pride of her life though that truly brought out the sparkle in her eyes were her children, Kayla Marie Smith and Christopher Michael Smith The Family would like to thank North Oaks Hospice for their total dedication, care and compassion. They provided Jackie with the help she needed and offered the family love and support and counseling. My love and prayers extend to Jackie's family and friends upon her passing. We met early in the PBCers support group and shared our lives through e-mails, the chat room and met twice at conferences. At the Biloxi PBC conference Jackie was determined to partner with me and walk the pier for PBC and I had to really hop to keep up with her and the wheelchair antics. She had so much courage.. She loved her children beyond measure and we shared stories of their progress and dreams throughout the years. I enjoyed receiving her annual Christmas card and notes. She is with her Lord now and is no longer suffering, for which I am grateful. My deepest condolences to all who held her dear. Anne V PBCer friend

Dear Family, There is a huge void in my life at this time. I have talked to Jackie almost every day for the past almost 2 years. It seems so empty not to pick up the phone and call her and say Hey. She was a beautiful spirit who is now able to sing with the angels and be pain free. I am glad we got the time to spend when she moved to the midwest for a time. She will be truly missed by those left on earth.
