Melvin John St. Blanc, Jr. died after sudden illness on December 30, 2006 at St. Tammany Parish Hospital.

He was 54 years old. Johnny leaves behind Patsy, his wife of 27 years, his children, Shaun and Nicole, his parents, Mel and Jackie St. Blanc, his brothers, Philip and Scott, his aunt and uncle, Marylynn and Puggy Ladner, and many cousins, nieces, and nephews.

He was a graduate of East Jefferson High School and obtained degrees in business and accounting from the University of Louisiana at Lafayette.

My thoughts and prayers are with you during this time. I will greatly miss Johnny's light hearted visits with treats in hand from Satsumas to sweet onions. I will also miss Johnny's love for Patsy that was shown through many ways but could usually be seen in beautiful flowers that sent their aroma through the entire office.

I am so sorry to hear about Johnny. I remember two things about Johnny. He loved you above all and he loved his children. Let's make that three things. He was such fun to be around. A personality that I have never forgotten. What a loss to your family. I am so sorry. My sympathies to you, your children, and family. Laure Desroche

Dear Patsy, I am so very sorry about your loss. Johnny was a fine man and he will certainly be missed. I often remember the time Mary Jane, Jackie, Mel, and I were visiting you two at your house when you had all those eggs hatching in your home. Mary Jane admired two large black iron pots Johnny had in your front yard, and he very quickly gave them to her. I still have them and think of him every time I look at them. I know what you are feeling as Mary Jane passed away a little over 10 years ago. The grief will lessen with time, but it will never fully go away. It's just something we have to learn to live with. Again, my condolences to you, Shaun, and Nicole. Buddy Caluda

Patsy Nicole and Shaun, Our family was so sad to hear about Johnny. As we were all talking and remembering him some things stood out. He was a loyal friend and most of all he loved his family. His face lit up when he talked about ya'll, he was so proud. He was always ready to help a friend and he loved to have a good time. I am sure that he and Gene spent New Years together waiting for us. You all are in our thoughts and prayers during this time.
