My sincerest condolences. Sorry to hear of your loss. I worked for John back @ Canal Place. I remember him as a kind family man. Thank you Pricilla for the nice X-Mas gifts you used to make for the group which John so proudly gave us w/your Xmas goodies. My red X-Mas ceramic stocking survived Katrina, it was in the attic. I did think of you when I recovered it. Again, sorry for your loss may you have many fine memories to look back on. May the prayers and thoughts of others comfort you and your family. With Sympathy to you and your family. I thought that this little poem might offer you some comfort as it has me at times of loss. Regina Inniss God Will Take Care of You May your troubled heart find peace and comfort in the knowledge that you are never alone. May God's presence ease your trembling spirit and give you rest. He knows how you feel. He is ever aware of your circumstances and ready to be your strength, your grace, and your peace. He is there to cast sunlight into all of your darkened shadows, to send encouragement through the love of friends and family, and to replace your weariness with new hope. ... No circumstances can block His love. No grief is too hard for Him to bear. No task is too difficult for Him to complete. When what you are feeling is simply too deep for words and nothing anyone does or says can provide you with the relief you need, God understands. He is your provider -- today, tomorrow, and always. And He loves you. Cast all of your cares on Him... and believe. by Linda E. Knight God Bless & Keep you in His care. from the Inniss family
