I was sorry to hear about Ms Mary Margaret's passing. She would crack me up with her stories of her trip to the Vatican with Ms Ellen. She was so proud of her new house. She talked about how, after the hurricane, David had got her set up where she could use her washer and dryer. Isn't it strange how something that wouldn't have seemed so much before was worth the world after the Hurricane? She was a character and will be missed from Madisonville.

When I think of Mary Margaret and her family it brings back such wonderful memories. I remember so well growing up with she and all her cousins. She was not only a good friend, but also like family—we all loved her so. The one thing I loved about Mary Margaret, she was no means a stranger to anyone wherever she went—she was loved by so many people. GOD TAKE VERY GOOD CARE OF OUR DEAR FRIEND--Joan Mire Hisler, George, Joan Elise, Deirdre and Hick, too.,
