I'm hoping you remember the Diermann's who lived across the street from you when you lived on Dante Street in New Orleans. In fact, my husband's parents, Bernice and Lester Melancon, rented your house when you all moved to the new one in Metairie. Thanks to your family, I met my husband Len and have been married for 48 years now. Kippie and Richie I remember you best of the boys. Faith, Hope, and Cherry I remember you best of the girls. Your mom and dad were really model parents and a great example for young parents like myself. I remember visiting your new Metairie home and was so impressed with the terrazzo floors! My family sends condolences to yours since I know how much your mother will be missed.

Mr. Richard and the entire Taranto Clan, We are so sorry for your loss. Ms. Sonia was such a good friend to Mom for so many years. We began to think of all of you as our family. Mom and Dad always enjoyed the years of square dancing and camping with you guys. I hope you know that the Boudreaux girls will always keep you in their hearts and prayers. Linda and Lee Wilson
