Marvin Jr., Mary Lynn, and Stephanie - I am so, so sorry to hear of the loss of Jennifer. Our hearts go out to you. I haven't seen the girls since they were little up at Mammaw's, but remember how sweet and pretty they were. May God stay near throughout your lives, and comfort you when the grief is overwhelming.

Dear Family and Friends of Jennifer, with great sadness I wish to convey my deepest sympathies to Jennifer's family and friends. Jennifer was an excellent student in two of my classes at Loyola. Be assured of the prayers of the Jesuit community in this time of bereavement. May our Lord comfort you in your loss and may He grant eternal peace and joy to Jennifer. Sincerely, Peter Bernardi, S.J.

Dear Marvin and Mary Lynne: We want you to know that we are remembering you and praying for you. There is something that is not right for a parent to lose a child. And that is from people who have stood where you are today. God is the only comfort we have in times like this. I know it sounds trite, but we know from experience that His love and strength and comfort will hold you steady today and the many tomorrows to come without your daughter. He will lift you up in His hands and carry you through. With our love and prayers, Jim and Sarah Wilkinson

Dear Mary Lynne and Marvin, I was so sad and emotionally moved to see Jennifer's picture and death notice in the paper today. I can so vividly remember the absolutely adorable little munchkin I baby sat for. Looking at her picture now I still see that precious smile and look in her eyes she had all those years ago. It gives me comfort to know she is in heaven with her Lord and Savior. I hope that gives you some comfort too. Not everyone gets that assurance of knowing where their precious child is and to know with certainty that you will be reunited with Jennifer in eternity. I got to know Charles and Laura a little as our neighbors when we moved by the Lake on Folse Drive. I do think of the babies I sat for as I am now retired from the Federal Gov't and sit for Jessica's 20 month old baby girl Layla Grace. I'm so sorry for your loss but am so gracious to God for your hope of the eternity that awaits us. Terry & Joe DiCarlo
