Dear Ray, A friend is here visiting us from Mandeville and he brought the local paper with him. That is where I saw that Helen was gone. I always looked for to our P.E.O. meetings so I could see her. She was one of my most favorite people and always had a kind word and a smile. My sympathy to you and your family. With a caring heart, Glory Sharp

Helen was a true Southern Belle. I was glad to meet her when Bill and his family became a part of Cinda's family. She and Ray always welcomed you to their home.
