Mabel Faust Walker

AUG 27, 1913 - NOV 5, 2007

Mable Faust Walker departed this life in Covington, Louisiana on the 5th day of November 2007.

Born to Mary and Orland Faust on August 27, 1913 in Paris, Tennessee, she lived for over fifty years in Norco, Louisiana, raising her family with her husband, J.D. Walker, deceased in 1977, before moving to Mandeville in 1982.

Mable is survived by her daughter Diane in Mandeville and her three sons: David, his wife, Zella Brown in Mandeville; John (Rusty), his wife, Felicia Gomez in Hahnville; and Don, his wife Bonnie Yule in Houston; six grandchildren: John David Walker, William Crockett Walker; Sarah Faust Walker; John Michael Walker; Samantha Walker and Mathis Walker; and two great-grandchildren: Maggie Walker and Sadie Evangeline Walker Page.

Mable lived a consistently joyful life, loving and being loved by family and friends, both old and new. She was a lifelong Christian in the Presbyterian tradition, showing her strong religious faith in each day of her life.

There will be a private graveside ceremony followed by a celebration of her life on the Mandeville Lakefront beginning at 2:00 PM on Friday, November 30, 2007.

The family wishes to express their appreciation for the loving care given to Mable by the staff and residents of Forest Manor Nursing Home in Covington during the past six years. The family also request that in lieu of flowers contributions in memory of Mable Walker be directed to Hospice of St. Tammany, 1201 S. Tyler St., Covington, LA 70433 or the donor's charity of choice. E.J. Fielding Funeral Home Inc., 2260 W. 21st. Ave., Covington, LA 70433 entrusted with the arrangements.

Dear Diane, David, Rusty, and Don (and Family), I want you all to know how much your mother meant to me. I have fond memories of her from as far back as our years in our wonderful Good Hope Presbyterian Church. I remember singing "Jesus Loves Me" as a young child and I remember when she led a group of us in an "I Am His" club when we were in high school. I remember her as Di's mom when I spent time in your home throughout high school and in college. She was also my 'boss' when I worked for a time in the library (when it was behind the bank). She was a friend of mine on a different level years later when we were together in Mandeville in the eighties. I valued her friendship. I will always be grateful to her for the extra love and support she gave me when I was ill. Did you know she drove me to the doctor's office once or twice a week for months. Your mom's gift to all of us was the ability to make each of us feel special. She listened, acknowledged, counseled, supported, and accepted. She was the special one. Love to you all, Janis

A poem for my favorite aunt in love and gratitude for all your kindnesses to me throughout the years ... In the rising of the sun and in its going down ... we will remember you. In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter ... we will remember you. In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring ... we will remember you. In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer ... we will remember you. In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn ... we will remember you. In the beginning of the year and when it ends ... we will remember you. When we are weary and in need of strength ... we will remember you. When we are lost and sick at heart ... we will remember you. When we have joys we yearn to share ... we will remember you. Now, as ever, you are a part of us. We will forever remember you with gratitude and love.

I met my friend Mable in 1986 as I was walking down the lakefront after recovering from surgery. She was by far one of the most unforgettable characters in my life. Mable was a true Christian and one of the most liberal people I knew. She never judged anyone. She really did the work of Jesus. She truly has her place in Heaven.
