Dear Kim, we were shocked to hear about your Dad and the suddenness of his passing. He and Emily will always hold a very special place in our hearts. Jehovah has wonderful people and they were the best. No one can know how you feel right now, but losing my parents within three months of each other, my prayers are that you find comfort in Jehovah's wonderful promises VERY NEAR AT HAND. When you're up to it, let the friends visit because it is very comforting to hear others express how much your parents meant to them. All our love, Paul and Carol

Dear Kim, Words just can't even begin to express my deep sympathy for your loss of your father. I remember your sweet parents showing so much love and caring for me and their wonderful love for Jehovah and his sheep. Your father had such a gift for sharing that love for the truth with all that he met. I really appreciated his way of giving talks, too. While I mourn the loss, I truly rejoice that I had the chance to have known such a special couple. And I most sincerely want to be able to welcome them back with open arms and lots of tears of joy. My thoughts and prayers are with you and may Jehovah give you strength during this time. With love, Carine

My memories of Brother Gill go back many years. I remember Gill's kind and patient demeanor. Also....Gill's sincere interest in following up on interested ones.... 5 months back Brother Gill asked that I follow up on one of his return visits.. I still have the return visit information on the back of a field service report. Gill took the time to draw a map providing exact directions to his return visit !! Brother Gill cared for Jehovah's sheep !!!!Gill always encouraged his Brothers and Sisters!!!

Dearest Kim and Family, there simply are no words adequate enough to express our anguish and sense of loss. Remembering so many happy and joyful moments when we first became part of the Kenner Congregation in 1971 will have to suffice until that grand reunion ahead. We are with you in spirit as you await the resurrection of your beloved ones. Agape and Philia.

I will always remember them as the sweetest of people and I am sure we will notice this about them when we see them again. We all take comfort in knowing "Jehovah is the God of the living." Uncle Gil was a truly spiritual man. More than anything, he loved witnessing to everyone he met & placed so much literature! Even when he was so sick this last week, he placed four books with the nursing staff before Kim or I even had a chance ! Jehovah observed & remembers all his good works. He truly lived Eccl. 12:1 and remembered his Grand Creator since the days of his young manhood. We look forward to welcoming him & Auntie Em in the paradise ahead.
