Unfortunately I did not get to know the kind, special young girl that everyone else knew. However, in having known the family for one year now, I've learned that Nicole was a very special girl who grew into an extra special woman. She was an inspirational and loving wife, mother, daughter, sister, aunt and friend to all she knew. Keeping the family close was her mission. She has left behind many fine memories in those who loved her, and many lessons to be learned by all. May she rest in peace and watch over her loving family.

Dear Jason, John and I are truly sorry for your loss. We had no idea of Nicole's condition since we had not seen you guys in many, many years. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you and your daughter. I pray that you can find some peace knowing that Nicole doesn't have to suffer and that she is with God watching over you and Dominique today. If we can do anything at all, please don't hesitate to call upon us. To the Norman Family, Nicole and I had some great times together in 6th and 7th grade at Visitation. Even though we grew apart, she always made me laugh whenever our paths crossed. I was quite shocked and saddened to hear the news. Please know that we will keep your family in our prayers. Sincerely, Cindy Huber McCrossen
