Now that one more saint has gone on to receive his reward we can rest assured he is well and healthy and happy to be home. We are so sorry for your loss but know we have one more reason to reach our goal and to make heaven our home. Mr. GE was a great man of God and a great giver to the cause we appreciate him and all he has done for the kingdom work here. His only concern was to have all his family members saved and headed to heaven with him so please know his faithfulness and prayers will sustain you even though he is not here. We need more men of God with his voice of praise and attitude of worship among us. With Love and Prayers, Tony and Sandy Dutruch
