Dear Jim, Dinah and Jamie, The services for Josh and the enormous outpouring of love and support from family and community was a blessing to witness yesterday. I was moved, uplifted, humbled, inspired and proud — proud of you all, proud of Jim's beautiful speech, proud to be a Planchard, proud of the faith that holds you up and binds us all. You honored Josh and our whole family with such grace and love. My heart and prayers are with you. --Nina

I wish there was something I could say here that would bring y'all even a moment of comfort but sadly I know there aren't any. All I can do is keep praying for you all and letting you know you are all so loved. He was a bright, beautiful, sensitive soul and I know those he was close to lives were made better by having known him. I wish I could have been there this weekend. I love u all so much. It really is true...the best die young. Gone too soon but never forgotten. Rest in peace sweet baby boy.

When I first met Josh I was walking up his driveway and saw a very neat, good looking young man. I asked if his parents were home and he replied, "My mom is, just go in through the back kitchen door. And at that he walked up to me, shook hands and said, "I am Josh, the son of Dinah and Jim. When I got home I told my husband this is every parent's dream for a son. How many kids do we know who have manners like this at his age? Dinah and Jim you have done a great job of raising a well groomed and well mannered son. He was a good kid. I know he will be missed by all who knew him. Our prayers are with you, Jamie and family. Remember we are just next door if you ever need anything. Your neighbor, Marie & Buddy Williams
