To her "four girls" - I will always remember her sweet smile and our friendly chats on her porch when I would walk over with "Annabelle" (my golden retriever) to bring A's gift of hair for her wild birds to "feather their nest". She was a wonderful person and I will always remember her with fondness. I shall remember,too, her kind daughters who helped me up when I fell. I would be sitting there yet if it hadn't been for you! God bless you girls and guide you through this heartbreaking time. Valora H. Spencer

Kurt and I spent several hours last night reminiscing while looking over photos of Aunt Charlotte and the Fanz family. We especially remembered the good times on Chatham Drive and our trip to Wildwood. We know Aunt Charlotte and Uncle Jay are together now, as Kurt puts it, "under the shady oaks of heaven". Peace be to you all. Love, Donna and Kurt
