Man, Bubba...still can't believe that you are no longer with us. Seems just yesterday we were nagging one another about who was going to whoop who on Madden. Honestly, you would have laid one on me by a country mile, but it was still fun talking mess and watching your face light up...even with all you've been through. Throughout your life, you made every room you walked into light up with your smile and positive attitude. Your continued and unwavering faith in the Lord up above so you through many obstacles and now has seen you home. Thanks for your caring words, putting others first, your strong-will, and simply for being you. Thanks for being a part of my life and for touching those lives you've come in contact with. You will forever be missed, Bubba and at the same time will continue to be a beacon of light and a ray of hope for so many for what you brought to us all. Until we meet on the other side, keep practicing at Madden, we'll have that game at the pearly gates lil brother. Love and Miss you, Russ Hernandez

I will miss Roger and that wonderful smile. As hard as it is to see him go there is one thing I know for sure is that I will see him again one day in Heaven. He has now been able to claim the promise Jesus gave us and that is that death can not hold us and the grave cannot keep us. You are all in my prayers and loved very much.

To my sweet friend... i will miss your random text messages. I remember the first time me, michelle, and joby came to see you - we played xbox i think! or rather I tried lol and the few other times I was able to visit you when I came down! You were always so positive - no matter your physiscal condition! God saw an angel that he needed and brought you home with Him. Again - I will miss hearing from you and probably wont ever delete your phn number - a little something to remember you!! My prayers are with the family as I know how hard it is to lose a loved one but the peace that can be given is the fact that we know Roger is with his Jesus whom he loved sooo much!!!! RIP my sweet friend! See you again one day!!!

To my good friend, I remember the day we meant. Playing ball at campground, you said "no sir I don't need a runner". You went on to hit the ball to 3rd base and then make your way to first with aid of walking sticks. Then after reaching safely, you allowed a runner. To you Roger I say thank for allowing me to call you a friend. And thank you for the word of God you text me just a few months ago. I have it saved in my phone forever.
