I am most saddened to hear of the passing of my old friend Curtis Sharp. To his family, I am very sorry I could not make the services today (work demands would not allow it). For those that don't know, Curtis and I worked together at WARB, from 1987-1991. Curtis was one of the nicest people I ever had the pleasure of working with. He was a kind person, always willing to help. We had some road trips broadcasting Covington high football (a trip to Lake Charles to play Barbe, is particularly memorable), where I got to know him away from work. He was a good broadcaster, a professional, who took pride in his work. And, he was a friend. Rest in Peace, Curtis Wayne Sharp. You were a good guy.

I don't know why but I was inclined to try to find Curtis this morning on the web. It was how I found this page. I, too, am saddened by this information. I also knew Curtis at WARB. We worked together in '84 and '85. We spent many hours sharing the broadcast booth and weekends trading off shifts or talking about music and our broadcast shows. He was very professional on air and I thought highly of his work ethic and commitment to his job and staff. Curtis was a wonderful person and mentor. Outside of WARB we spent time on a bowling league together where I got to know him better. I can only suspect he became a better person than he already was when I knew him. I had not spoken to Curtis except for a brief moment when I found him at the News Banner in 2000. I hope you rest in peace Curtis, I am sorry to know you have passed. My condolences to the family and friends.
