Kathi And Ivan Moller lit a candle in honor of Michael.

Our son was just months older than Mike and they grew up in the same neighborhood. Michael was a smiling, quiet soul when we were around him at parties and family get togethers with our friends, his Aunt Bridget and Uncle Dalton. I know the sadness his family is feeling as our son died tragically last September. Our prayers ,angel's heart and soul goes out to the whole family. We are so very sorry for your loss, Billy and Sharon. Wish we could be there, but will be with you in our thoughts.Kathi and Ivan Moller

Sharon, saying I am so sorry for your loss of your precious child can never be enough to console you and your husband. No parent should have to hurt as you are, but I will be praying for you and keeping you both in my thoughts and prayers and talks with God. At a time like this the only thing to hold on too is the promise of Christ for a happier and healthier time when we will all be united again. The Bible tells us there is a time for mourning and tears and that time sadly is now for your family. Take the time you need and hold each other close to your hearts. May God Bless you all and give you the strength you need to go forward. Your friend, Barbara Foret
