Dave was one of the reps I most enjoyed hearing from during the time I provided computer support to them. He was always easy to work with and a joy to talk to. Whenever I went home to New Orleans we would try to connect so he could get some one-on-one computer help. After a time, he got to be pretty self-sufficient and no longer needed my help as much, but we stayed in touch until I left the position. Always kind, always caring. So dedicated. Prayers to his wife and daughter. Heaven gained another angel. R.I.P my friend. Karen Williams
