Amelie Yeargain Haller

MAY 19, 1934 - SEP 20, 2014

Amelie Chalaron Yeargain Haller, age 80, of Covington, LA died Saturday, September 20, 2014. She was born, Saturday, May 19, 1934 in New Orleans, LA to Arnold Wesley and Amelie Chalaron Yeargain.

She is survived by her daughters – Amelie Polis Sharp (husband David), Claire Polis Mott (husband Arthur), Nina Polis (fiancée Donny DeMarie); son – Arnold Yeargain Polis; granddaughters - Laura Polis, Megan Polis, Brittany Mott, Gabrielle Lacey, Ainsley Lacey; grandsons - Ethan Mott, Tyler Mott, Steele Lacey, Cole Lacey, and her brother - John W. Yeargain (wife Kathy).

She was predeceased by her husbands - William H. Polis and Raymond J. Haller, her brother - Frank Yeargain and her parents.

She was a graduate of Louise S. McGehee School of New Orleans, class of 1952 and the University of Rhode Island. Amelie was known and loved for her eternally generous spirit. Born and raised in New Orleans she was a devoted daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother and friend. Her Southern Hospitality meant that you were always welcome, your stay or your family dinner would always be perfect and you would be missed until your next visit. Knowing her personally meant your birthdays would always be remembered, you could count on her to write if you moved away and if you loved her Christmas treats she'd bake them, package them beautifully and hand deliver them each year. She thought of everyone, smiled endlessly, laughed, trusted, loved and gave without question. We love her and miss her and know that the world is a little less bright without her, but heaven has a new redhead, who is already spreading her love.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday, September 24, 2014 at Our Lady of The Lake Roman Catholic Church, 395 Lafitte St, Mandeville, LA– visitation begins at 10:00, services at 11:00, followed by interment in Metairie Cemetery, New Orleans, LA.

Amelie was a childhood playmate and McGehee '52 classmate of my sister, Marjory Lyman. Although they were ten years older than me, I remember Amelie well back then and again, more recently. She lived in a big white house on State St. with a very interesting alcove in the front, near the Presbyterian Church. She played at our house down the street and had very gentle manner and smiling face with a darling slight lisp. She showed no signs of a redheaded temperament. I thought she was beautiful in spirit and in appearance. I'm sure we have photos of her, and maybe even 8 mm film of her as a young teen in a tap costume for shows they did on a makeshift stage in our backyard. I was very impressed with these glamorous teenagers! Her beautiful obituary is written as if her children and grandchildren have inherited some of her grace. May she rest in peace. Diane Manget

Dear John and Kathy, You and your family are very close in heart and in prayer. Amelie was such a beautiful, gentle, and faithful witness for our Lord in her life every day. She is at peace in the sunshine of Christ's love and in His Kingdom with her Blessed Mother, who protected her in the folds of her mantle and gave her strength and comfort throughout her life. May God bless and comfort all of you in the marvelous love that only He can give. In Christ Jesus and Mary, Anna Bass
