My family moved in next door to Lee in Metairie, LA on January 1st 1976. As time went by we became close friends. Lee and I traveled together across Canada by train, to Greece by ship and shorter trips in the states. I will miss giggling over memories with her.

Janice Paine lit a candle in honor of Leora.

I will always remember the trips that Lee and I made to New York, Branson and Las Vegas. Many many fond memories with our group, "the ladies of the night". Lee and I had a special bond because we loved doing the same kinds of things and also enjoyed each others' company. Most importantly, I am proud to call Lee my very best friend. I will miss you Lee, Rest in Peace! Janice Paine
