Words cannot adequately express the compassion I feel in my heart for all of you at this tragic time. I pray God will comfort your hearts in the way that only he can. Know that he is your refuge and strength, and that he will never leave you. Allow him to wrap you in his arms and whisper words of love and hope into your spirits. Continued prayers and much love... Chris was such a nice man. He took care of my lawn for over 10 years, but so much more than that. He looked after things when I worked out of town after Katrina. After storms, Chris checked on it, then gave me a call to let me know how things were. And he questioned people if someone was there, to make sure they had business being at my home. He was always very considerate to me. I will miss Chris coming to my home..just at the right time to take care of my lawn. I always thanked Chris, but wish I had thanked him more. I hope he knew how much I appreciated him as a kind man, as well as his amazing work with my yard. My prayers are with you all Vickie, Tyler, and Justin. May the Holy Spirit give you peace that Chris is in God's care now.
