God has brought the Little Angel home, and she is safe and secure, and made whole, and free of pain. She will be there at the gates now to welcome you home. This is what my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ wants your family to know. Over the past year my Church family Mandeville Christian Church has been praying for Little Adele through her tough times, and even through the good times with praise reports. Today my Church Family is lifting up your family in prayer, that Lord above will give you Peace and Understanding, so that your hearts will heal over time, and to let you see that Adele had been the biggest blessing in your life. Love Jo Kraus.
