In all the years, of having different neighbors, never has there been two people like Eddie and Audrey. We are so happy to have been able to spend the years next door to you.. Watching how full of life you were as you enjoyed your retirement. You were more than a neighbor, you were our friends, and that's hard to come by....Thank you for showing us just how it's done. Thanks for letting us show your wife, Audrey, such a great time the evening that we took her out for gambling, dinner and some very funny moments. Mr. Eddie, we know you struggled for the past two years after losing Mrs. Audrey, but your strength carried you own and now you are with her again.Real friends and neighborsLoveScott and Candy Jackson 4-ever

Eddie was a coworker, friend, neighbor and just about as close to being family as one can get. We will miss the sound of the chainsaw! May God find you eternal peace, and comfort for your family. Eddie, you will truly be missed.

My condolences to the family of such a nice and humble man. I worked with him for 2 years at the airport in the late eighties and I remember his smile, laughter, and kindness. The world would be a much better place with more people like Eddie. God bless all

Worked with Eddie only a couple of years at the airport. The biggest memory I have is that he was an awful nice guy. Wish I could have worked with him a lot longer. May he rest in peace and the family
