George was always a great guy! He was our "Big Brother" and chaperone at our many family reunions in Pollock. He made sure we stayed busy playing softball, swimming or whatever else he could conjure up to keep us out of the way of the old folks. He lived his life with a love for the Lord, family and everyone else. He will be missed. One of his greatest accomplishments was when he married Bonnie. We know you are at Peace with the Lord George and will petition the Lord for all of us still here. God Bless!
