To Mildred's Family,I met Mildred at a Young at Heart luncheon (First Baptist Church Covington) years ago. In fact, it was my first time and sat next to her. It was a delight becoming acquainted with this sweet and humble lady...and what a God-given talent she had. Many of us are the grateful recipients of her gorgeous hand-crafted dollies. Thank you, Mildred for generously sharing your workmanship with us.May God comfort you all as you miss your precious loved one.Gail Sensebe

Dear Georgie,So sorry to hear of the death of your mother at age 94. I remember Millie as a soft spoken, kind cousin-in-law who I knew only remotely.My father was Tom Hill, your grandmother's younger brother. When Aunt Rhea and Aunt Rose were alive your parents would visit them occasionally in New Orleans.I lived in Harahan as a child and remember Aunt Thelma and Uncle Adolph (who always had a story to tell and I felt his love for children).I am married with five grown children and seven grandchildren. If you are ever in the neighborhood (I live in New Orleans in the Lakeview area) give me a call, as I would love to visit. My phone number is 504-218-5674.Love, Zana Hill Newell
