Robert was awesome, Lord, because he wanted to be the husband, father, brother, sister, nephew, and friends you wanted him to be . Sure, he had his failings, but we always knew we could depend on him whenever we needed his help. We also knew that he loved you and all of us. He may not have left his mark on the world like many great men, but he left a mark on us that will always be grateful. Robert lived a life full of tough challengers and rough harship, and we are glad he is now resting with you. Nevertheless, Lord, we really miss him. and will always honor him in our prayers.Love Aunt Ronnie Kane

My Dear Brother, I remember the days on Woodside Ave when you were always taking things apart and putting them back together so they would work "better" go :faster" . You are my Hero in every sense of the word. You fought harder and longer than any human I know and smiling thru it all. And know that you will be missed by many, your adoring loving wife Kathy and children , your sisters , brothers, aunts, uncles and cousins and the many friends you made along your journey. But as life begins on Earth so it must end, and knowing that you are in Heaven with Mom and the countless other family members that were there to welcome into Paradise, where there is no pain and suffering, gives me a sense of comfort . You will forever live on in my heart , I love to the moon and back ! Love Martha

Forty years ago, Robert, you became part of your family down South, bunking with Sean, becoming our other son, fitting in like a local. You had me at "Hello"! We are so proud to have been witness to and benefactors of your incredibly large heart, your awesome work ethic, and magnetic personality! That smile alone lit up the room--the blue eyes, dimples and quick wit were just delightful lagniappe! We will miss you terribly, but know you are at peace. Likely you are entertaining the heavens and teasing the relatives! How blessed we all were to know you when...!Love you Always,Kane and Peg

I only got to meet Robert one time and for that I feel truly sorry and blessed all at the same time. My Ken had spoken so highly of him and how they had such wonderful childhood memories that I was grateful to finally say I met Robert :). It was truly a pleasure to sit and chat with Robert and see that magical smile and amazing blue eyes that I had heard stories about. May Robert be at peace with all of the angels in heaven and may Kathy be comforted in this tough time with all of the lovely memories and kind words written here and with her own memories. Our love and prayers are with you and the whole family.

Words are what we say. Actions are what make a person. Robert's actions speak for themselves. A strong hearted, inspirational, great person who cared about others before himself. I'll miss the smile, the fantastic blue eyes, the cousin who was a brother to me. I'll miss the man who shared my childhood. He always would say "I am doing okay", no matter how much he was going through. He was an inspiration to all who knew him!! am thankful he is no longer in pain, that he is with his mom and dad, his in-laws, Nana and Pop Kane.I love you, I will miss you.Ken(ny)
