Alan Andre Hebert

JUL 20, 1987 - APR 6, 2015

Alan Andre Hebert passed away on Monday, April 6, 2015 in New Orleans, LA. He was born on July 20, 1987 in Lafayette, LA and was a resident of Mandeville, LA since 1996.

Alan's unique spirit had a way of touching people's hearts. He brought absolute joy, love, and laughter to those around him. His vibrant personality was embraced and admired by all. To Alan, the simple things in life brought him happiness; music, swinging, fishing, family and friends. To each person Alan's life holds a special meaning. Whether Alan was sharing a smile with a stranger, or spending time with his loved ones, his life's purpose was being fulfilled. The world is a bit dimmer and the Heavens a little brighter. Our angel has been called home to his eternal life. The beloved son of Cheri Crochet and Paul Andre Hebert, Alan is also survived by one sister – Allison Danaher Hebert; his grandparents - Gloria Hebert, Ronnie and Lila Crochet, along with his larger extended family members.

Alan's Celebration of life services will be held at 12:00 Noon on Friday, April 10, 2015 at St. Timothy United Methodist Church, 335 Ashbury Dr. Mandeville, LA 70471. Like Alan, this celebration of his life will be joyful and unique. Please wear bright and colorful attire.

Visiting hours will begin at the church Friday at 11:00 AM.

Interment at the St. Joseph Abbey Cemetery in Covington will immediately follow services.

Flowers are welcome or donations in memory of Alan may be made to: St. Tammany Association of Retarded Citizens (STARC of Louisiana) at www.starcla.org or by calling (985) 727-9439 or to St. Andrew's Village at www.saintandrewsvillage.org or by calling (985) 590-7287.

Alan will always be a memory that brings a warm smile and laughter. The simple joy he always showed will never be forgotten, the joyful yell of "MISSSSSTEEER JOEEEE" every time we met, will always ring true. The country music CD's Alan shared with us will also be a fond lasting memory. Joe & Stephanie Leimkuhler

Alan was a student of mine while at Tchefoncte Middle School. My favorite times were watching him play softball in my PE class. It was when I heard him laugh the most. It was infectious and we would have to stop the game while the whole class was bent over laughing with him. He also thought it was cool that I had a son named Alan too.

Sheri, I rarely pursue the newspaper thoroughly, but Someone prompted me to look more closely this morning, I am so sorry. When we were in Bible study together sharing Alan and Larissa stories, you with humor gave me the lift I needed during a very trying time. I remember Alan entertaining the church ladies at your home, to our great delight. Peace be with you and your family. Blessings, Mindy Lee

I met Alan with his dad Paul, many years ago when shopping at Home Depot. He was indeed energetic and very inquisitive. He left a lasting impression on me which I have not forgotten. Paul and Cheri were indeed blessed to have this special son in their lives. I will pray for them both as they will miss him deeply. Alan is without doubt in the presence of his maker.

We met Alan around 1990 when the family lived at Audubon Lake Subdivision. Beautiful child. Funny too. As a toddler I remember he loved high fiving everyone. He was energetic and full of life. A joy to family and friends. We are saddened by his passing but grateful we knew him and cherish his memory.

When having a difficult day, 5minutes with Alan could quickly put such trivial things into perspective. Alan was entertained by little things, simple things, the important things; love and family. A bright spot in an often cynical world. He will be missed. Dr. Johnny Swiger
